

Policy for Reporting and Handling Violations of Ethics/Honor and Professionalism Codes by Medical Students — Twin Cities Campus

FULL POLICY CONTENTS

Policy Statement
Reason for Policy
Procedures
Additional Contacts

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

Related Information

Effective: May, 2013
Last Updated: February, 2015

Responsible University Officer:
Assistant Dean for Student Affairs

Policy Owner:
Undergraduate Medical Education, TC

Policy Contact:
Dr. Michael Kim, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs

Policy Statement

All members of the University of Minnesota Medical School (faculty, staff and students) are responsible for upholding the ethic, honor and professionalism codes.

Reason for Policy

To provide standardized fair, just, timely, transparent and accountable process for reporting and resolving violations of ethics, honor and professionalism codes by undergraduate medical students.

Procedures

- Procedure for Reporting Ethics Violations by Medical Students
<http://www.meded.umn.edu/policies/reporting-ethics-violations-TC-procedure.php>

Additional Contacts

Subject	Contact	Phone	Email
Primary Contact	Dr. Michael Kim, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs	(612) 625-5180	mikekim@umn.edu

Related Information

- Related Policies and Procedures
<http://www.meded.umn.edu/policies/reporting-ethics-violations-TC-related.php>